

Welcome

Thank you for joining us this Lord's Day to worship at Covenant Presbyterian Church!

To all our visitors: Thank you for joining us this morning in the worship of the Lord our God. Jesus said, "God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24). It is our prayer you will sense the presence of God's Spirit as you are with us today. Please take one of the Visitor Cards from the holder on the back of the pew, fill it out, place it in the offering plate or hand it to the pastor as you leave the sanctuary today. This will enable us to learn something about you and to send you a note of thanks for being with us. We promise to keep this information confidential and only use it for personal follow-up contact with you and your family.

We usually observe the Lord's Supper on the first Sunday of each month. We invite to the Lord's Table all who are disciples of Jesus Christ, set apart unto him by baptism and a profession of faith before the leaders of a local evangelical congregation of Christ's Church. By joining with us at the Table, you are acknowledging to the leadership of this local church you are in covenant with God as an active member in good standing of your home congregation. You acknowledge you are a sinner, without hope except in the sovereign mercy of God, and you are trusting in Jesus Christ alone for salvation.

NOTE: We use wine in communion because we believe Jesus used wine with his disciples at the Last Supper. However, grape juice is also made available in the trays. The wine is clearly red and dark in color; while the grape juice is white or pale yellow in color. Ask a server, if in doubt.

This week, pray for all the missionaries that Covenant supports. Ask God's continued strength and spiritual protection for those who are ministering the gospel in various places.

We welcome to our pulpit this morning Rev. Jim Wilkerson. Pastor Wilkerson serves as pastor of Christ Church in Columbia, South Carolina. He began serving Christ Church April 21, 2013. Jim is an ordained Teaching Elder in the PCA. Prior to coming to Columbia Jim served as church planter and pastor of Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Brunswick, Georgia and as youth and families pastor at Golden Isles Presbyterian Church in St. Simons Island, Georgia. Jim has been married to Noelle for 29 years. Together they have six children and three grandchildren.

Please join us today following the worship service for a Fellowship Dinner in Petersen Hall.

Graduation time is just around the corner! We want to publish a list of all graduates, if you would like your graduate listed, please drop a note by the church office or an e-mail to cpcpca1@bellsouth.net with graduate's name, school and diploma/degree awarded.
